Claims 5-20 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim cannot depend from a multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, claims 5-14, 17-20 have not been further treated on the merits.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-4, 15, 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

A) In claim 1, section a) in its entirety is not clear; especially what 'upwardly delimited' and 'thermal path' mean. It is noted that all materials have a phase diagram as an inherent property and that applicant cannot change it.

B) Claim 1 part c) is unclear as to what is actually done. It is suggested that the claims be rewritten to describe the starting material, the steps performed and the final product.

Applicant should provide references alluded to on specification pages 3-7.

The claims are so unclear that a meaningful search and application of the prior art is not possible, however the following is offered for the sake of completeness:

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Rudy 4066451.

Rudy teaches in col. 7 and 10 in particular melting tungsten carbide and re-solidifying it. See example L in table 3 and compare to present specification.

Claims 1, 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Moustakas 4804583.

The reference teaches, especially in col. 2, irradiating a tungsten carbide target to vaporize it ('subjecting to homogenization') and depositing it as a solid on a substrate ('quenching to freeze'). Step a is met because tungsten carbide inherently has the same phase diagram.

Claims 1, 3, 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Kruse et al. pg pub.

Kruse teaches, especially in ex. 1, grinding (thus homogenizing) tungsten carbide. While the shape is not disclosed, using oddly shaped particles (if not done by the reference) is an obvious expedient to convert them to an usable form.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).
